

Northeast All Breeds Spring Show

Youth Growth Opportunity

The Northeast All-Breeds Spring Show committee is seeking 2 show time assistants. Qualified candidates would be interested in communication, public relations, and promotion of our show. We would like to work with interns interested in this aspect of the industry and get them involved, behind the scenes, of running a large show! This opportunity opens the doors to networking with influential people within the Northeast dairy cattle industry & beyond. We have two positions available to fill. Dates are: March 1 to April 30, with attendance being required during the week of the show April 15 - April 20 , 2024.

Show Time Assistants (2): This position is for those available to be on-site for the duration of the show, April 15-20, 2024. The show assistants will help the show committee with a wide variety of tasks that will include everything from cattle check in, verifying paperwork, managing the show office, handing out exhibitor numbers, and filling in various “show day” activities such as ringside check in, recording placings or handing out awards. These applicants may also assist in social media coverage during the show. It will be an incredibly busy week for exhibitors & committee members. This person will work with the entire show planning committee.

Applicant must have or be willing to learn the following skills:

- Clear communication
- Time Management Skills
- Proficient with Facebook
- Willing to learn how to use Wix websites and adobe graphic design spaces
- Be flexible with time and requests
- Transparent on what YOU would like to learn or take away from this opportunity

To apply, please send an email of interest to: Toni Jacque tajacque16@gmail.com no later than March 22, 2024

1. Why do you want this position and what are your goals to receive from this experience?
2. What skills/experience do you have that will improve our show in a positive way?

This is an unpaid internship opportunity, however, those you work with during this time will provide you with valuable reference requests as needed, in your future. If you believe this could fit within a school outlined internship program, we are happy to document your experience as needed.
